Due Diligence

We will ensure that our policies and procedures are robust, transparent and promote ethical business practices. We shall continue to work with our clients, sub-contractors and suppliers to eliminate any activity that is connected to modern slavery or human trafficking with an aim to create an environment which does not tolerate these practices.

We will not support or deal with any business knowingly involved with in slavery or human trafficking.

In doing so we aim to follow the guiding principles as set out by the ILO/UN.

- We have vetting processes in place for sub-contractors and suppliers.
- We have written into our supply chain agreements that they shall abide and commit to the principles of the Ethical Trading Agreement – ETI Base code.
- We utilise our Management Systems that are certified to ISO 9001, 14001, 45001 and as such audited externally on our procurement processes.

Mitigating Risk

- Our key focus areas are suppliers and sub-contractors.

- Our employees and suppliers are paid via bank transfer, we do not support payments to third party bank accounts, thus minimising the risk of forced labour.
- Employees are vetted for right to work where they are employed.
- We operate a vetting process for suppliers and sub-contractors and as such our business utilises those who have long standing relationships and performance delivery abilities.
- We also implement the right to audit our supply chain, hoping to encourage and engage with our supply chain ensuring compliance.
- We shall train and educate our workforce and focus on those who shall have a real impact on spotting the signs of modern slavery and thereby driving change.

Summary / evaluation

We have not encountered or been made aware of any concerns / infringements relating to this policy whilst undertaking our activities at any time. The CEO, Company Directors and senior management continue to take full responsibility for implementing this policy statement and its objectives and shall provide adequate resources and investment to ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place within the company and its supply chain.
